

Dear Phoebe:

Are you avoiding me, or do I owe you a letter?
I suspect the latter; you know what an unreliable correspondent I sometimes am.

How is life under a Conservative Government? I want to know how my Socialist friends are surviving.

Meanwhile, I have to learn to endure my journalist friends. You must have seen the profound piece by Xandra. Now CBS-TV has decided to try to outdo Mademoiselle Hunebelle. They have been almost as persistent and have been following me around with cameras in Washington, San Clemente, Mexico, and Disneyland, chronicling my exciting life for posterity. As an historian, I can only approve.

It was really a pleasure to see you in the spring.
You do an outstanding job; I trained you well.

Please keep in touch. I always enjoy hearing from you.

Warmest regards,

Henry A. Kissinger
